snowing the fact that Lewisohn is a under commitment to the Tombs Judge McMahon, of the Court of maral Sessions, for criminal com-mot in refusing to answer these same resions before the Grand Jury, and that the Grand Jury has indicted him or in refusing to answer per questions, upon which he is out a $1,000 ball, Mr. Lanterbach attacked John Doe-proceeding.

sedings Illegal, Says Counsel. denied the legal right of Justice west to conduct the John Doe proary, and declared that his arrest and letention was illegal because the information upon which the proceeding has based was not made upon any fact alleged in the sworn complaint, but mitrely upon information and consumpt; that the commitment was for a nigeomeanor under a section of the sw which does not describe Mr. Lewsonn's alleged offense, and because to sompel him to answer the questions would be in violation of Mr. Lewisohn's honstitutional rights.

Mr. Lauterbach cited the case of Charles W. Morse in the John Doe inquiry started in connection with the Dodge-Morse divorce tangle.

Mr. Lauterbach read from the code, showing what classes of cases might be tried in private, and showed that the John Doe inquiry was not included in the list.

Attacks the Commitment.

Attacks the Commitment.

Mr. Lauterbach also attacked the commitment under which Lewisohn is held on the ground that the contempt of court charged against him does not in law constitute a misdemeanor, and was not a criminal contempt because the law limits that offense to a contempt of a court of record, and a Magistrate's court is not a court of record.

Mr. Lauterbach argued that the case lecided by the United States Supreme Court, an Interstate Commerce case, in which the question of degradation did not enter, was not applicable to this mase, as Lewisohn is asked if he ever played roulette, and his answer might be a confession of a crime punishable by a year in prison, and while this law might give him immunity from bunishment for the crime it could not give him immunity from the disprace, odium and degradation of his confession.

Justice Dugro Takes a Hand. Justice Dugro took a hand in the dis-cussion at this point. Said he:
"Why, I recall many cases in which I have compelled witnesses to testify when their answers tended to degrade them, but not to incriminate them, their testimony being pertinent to the matter in dispute."

Mr. Jerome urged that the papers be-dispute.

Ir. Jerome urged that the papers beme Magistrate Wyatt showed that chard A. Canfield was charged with clony and were gufficient to give him a felony and were sufficient to give him jurisdiction.

Mr. Lauterbach then asked for a writ of certiorari to the Appellate Division for the review of the proceedings before Judge McMahon.

"It seems to me." said Justice Dugro. "that I am asked, in simple, for a certificate of reasonable doubt. Now, do you suppose that I would dare, in the face of a decision of the United States Supreme Court, by a yote of 5 to 4, refuse a certificate of reasonable doubt."

doubt?"
Everybody laughed.
"The Supreme Court seems to have decided the law by a vote of 5 to 4, but the reasonable doubt remains."

PATRICK APPEAL POSTPONED. ALBANY, May 19 .- Argument in the Court of Appeals in the case of Albert T. Patrick, condemned to die for the murder of William M. Rice in New York City in 1900, was again postponed to-day until the October term of court. Ex-Senator David B. Hill appeared before the Court with ex-Supreme Court Justice Landon, who is to argue the case and convince the Court that the delay should be granted.

The Delineator for June. The lady of fashion who may turn to The eDimeator in her June leisure for amusement, as well as the busy woman who may pick it up for relaxation, will find good fiction and general articles of wide interest. "The Giver of Honour" is a refreshing little tale by Mrs. Hugh Fraser, and two college stories are pleasant reminders of days once dear to many readers. The concluding chapter of "The Evoluton of a Club Woman" brings to an end this study of club life, from one point of view, that has awakened such widespread interest. The romance and thrill of the number is supplied by the story of "Rebecca Boone," and the beautiful Chinese and Indian photographs in the "Around the World" series will eppeal to every one who has or has not travelled abroad. June interests at home are represented by an article on "Window Boxes and Windiaw Gardening," by one on the less aesthetic but also, necessary topics of "Household Pets," and the culinary pages. "Tommy Postoffice" still comes on the scene to delight the children with his escapades, and Mr. Albert inches. amusement, as well as the busy woman
